DEPEW SENTIMENT IN MONTGOMERY. FRANK HISCOCK'S LETTER FAVORING EX-STATE SENATOR JAMES ARKELL FOR

GOVERNOR. Canajobarie, N. Y., Sept. 7 (Special).-The Repub-State Convention will be held at Fonda to-morrow It will be one of the livelest ever held in Montgomery County, and much friction is likely to arise over the instruction of the delegates as to a candidate for Governor. The general desire outof that which prevails for a citizen of Canaharle, who has been mentioned in connection with office-ex-Senator James Arkell-is in favor Chauncey M. Depew, and it seems likely that if local sentiment shall be brushed aside, the delegates will be instructed to present the name of Mr. Depew. also of J. Sloat Fassett, Senator Saxton and Controller Roberts. The Republicans of Montgomcan be relied upon to unite for any Republicar to is nominated. The distress prevailing at Am-who is nominated. The distress prevailing at Amsterdam because of the delays of the Congress has made the whole city Republican, and the people were never so anxious to vote as now.

One of the delegates to the State Convention, it is said, will be W. J. Arkell, of "Judge," Young Arkell is known to be opposed to the mention of his father's name for Governor, and it is said he desires to be on hand to spike any guns that may appear in his favor. The ex-Senator himself poured cold water on his chances by his letter to Andrew Rindskopf, recently published in The Tribune, in which he said that there had only been one Governor in his family. Sir Samuel Arkell, in 1617, he being a "hardheaded rapscalion buccaneer, and a tough one." Among the letters received in favor of Mr. Arkell's nomination is one from Senator Frank Hiscock, who is seeking health in the State of Washington, to the editor of "The Canajoharie Courier." The letter says.

"Willet F. Cook: I observe that your paper has mentioned the name of ex-Senator Arkell for Governor this fail, and I cannot refrain from saying a word in his behaif. Mr. Arkell is a gentleman of distinguished ability and purity of purpose, and has been a close student of public affairs. His services in the State Senate were of the character to entitle him to leadership both there and with the people on issues of public interest, and in his retirement to private life he has continued to command public respect and confidence. He would adorn the official position for which the partiality of his friends has mentioned his name. The date of my return to New-York State is somewhat indefinite."

SUGGESTIONS AS TO COMMITTEEMEN. ADVICE TO JOSEPH LAROCQUE ABOUT THE SE-LECTION OF SEVENTY NAMES.

interest was manifested yesterday in the citizens' movement against Tammany Hall which was formally started in the Madison Square Garden Cohcert Hail on Thursday evening, and which, the great uprising against the same corrupt organization of twenty-two years ago, is to be conlected by a Committee of Seventy. Joseph La-ocque, the chairman of the Concert Hall meeting. was assigned the task of appointing this portant committee, had many callers yesterday received much excellent advice, verbally and by tuted. Chairman Larocque expressed his satisfaction regarding he wilespread evidence of determination on the part of ah classes of citizens to John the movement. He believed that it would be irresistible, for all indications at present pointed to a combination which would accomplish the overthrow of Tamman, Hall.
Chairman Larocque said that he had not yet begun to choose members for the Committee of Seventy, and would do nothing in that direction until next week. He referred all who had advice to give on that subject to Gustav H Schwab, whom he will consult as to the committee's membership.

HE PITCHES INTO MR. ROOSEVELT. JOHN D. TOWNSEND TAKES UP CUDGELS IN BEHALF OF THE INDEPENDENT COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

John D. Townsend writes a letter to The Tribune in which he defends the Independent County Or-ganization against the slur cast upon it by Robert B. Roosevelt at the citizens' meeting in the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall. Among other things Mr. Townsend says:

Inings Mr. Townsend says:

The remarks made by Mr. Roosevelt indicate that he would willingly accept the nomination upon the reform ticket and it is equally certain that Tammany Hall would be glad to indorse him. I very much mistake the temper of the people of New-York if they desire Mr. Roosevelt for Mayor at this time. Does my memory fall me when it suggests to me that Mr. Roosevelt within the last two years presided at a regular meeting of Tammany Hall?

gests to me that Mr. Roosevelt within the last two years presided at a regular meeting of Tammans Hall?

This gentleman went out of his way last night to cast a slar upon the Independent County Organization, which he designated as "The Steckiers." He manifested more ignorance than an aspirant for the Mayoralty should be willing to display in public. The independent County Organization came it to existence in December last at the Cooper Union, in the presence of 2,500 people. Over 2,000 persons were unable to obtain admission to the hall it was a mos remarkable gathering, as show was falling at the time. A better or more representative class of men conditions to the forther meeting, and no more enthusiastic people ever met upon a public occasion.

Since then the gentlemen who were appointed at the meeting to represent the organization have devoted most of their time and considerable money in pushing forward the interests for which the meeting was called Among those who have devoted the most time and furrished the most money are Alfred and Charles Steckler whom, Mr Roosevelt foll wing in the footstens of Croker and his henchmen, attempted last night to deery. I have it upon the best authority that these gentlemen were never dismissed from Tammany Hall, but that on the contrary they left that organization with their large following, much to the regret of the Tamman, chie's for very good and sufficient reasons. What has Robert B. Roosevelt been doing for the cause of reform during the last eight or nin months while the Independent County Organization has been engaged in disclosing the vile methods and practices of the Tammany chiefs? Has any one heard his voice in the cause of reform; of his advancing money in its support? I think that we heard him for the first time last night in his efforts to 'hill the sentiments of reform. There are many other men besiden Mr. Roosevelt who are engaged in this business (privately as yet), but when they come to the surface they will receive attention from the Independent County O

THIS DEMOCRAT MUST HAVE MONEY TO BURN.

M C. Bouvier, a member of the Stock Exchange, yesterday made a bet with Mr. Kitchen, also member of the Exchange, that the next Governor of this State would be a Democrat He wagered $1.600 to $300. This is one of the first election bets made in Wall Street, and is considered a most rash one for Mr. Bonyler.

UNSWERVING IN THEIR LOYALTY. The Stalwart Republican Club of the IIId Assembly District held its monthly meeting last evening at No. 33 Delancey-st. Resolutions were adopted reaffirming their allegiance to the cause in which they are enlisted, and pledging anew their fealty the leadership of John E. Milholland. Mr. Milholland was present, and made a speech, congratu-lating his hearers on the strength of the organization, and referring to the condition of the Committee of Thirty as "one of absolute and humiliating failure, if not of ridicule." J. J. Bealin, of the 1Xth Assembly District, exhorted the Republicans of the IIId District to choose a leader from among themselves, "not a swell from Murray Hill," he with you, who will go into the fifth stories of tenement-houses after voters, and take those voters to the polls. Under such leadership I feel sure that the HId District, as well as the IXth, whatever their individual preferences may be, will abide by the decision of the State Convention at Saratoga. Speeches were made by Dr. A. S. Houghton and Joseph Wilkinson. A. K. Moses, J. T. Paine and John Gillen were chosen inspectors of the primary elections to be held next Thursday. Officers of the club are as follows: President, F. J. Martin; first vice-president, John Burke; second vice-president, T. F. Ruhel; secretary, J. T. Paine; treasurer, Christian Goetz; sergeant-at-arms, Dennis Mc-Carty. "You want a man who lives all the year

IT HOPES TO HAVE A PERMANENT HOME. The Young Men's Republican Club of the III-l Assembly District held a meeting at No. 20 Orchardst. last evening. The officers of the club are: Presdent, A. Kadane; first vice-president, S. Witten stein; second vice-president, L. Levy; treasurer, S. Sapper; financial secretary, L. Harris; recording secretary, R. L. Margolyes; sergeant-at-arms, M. Romm. The object of the meeting was to arrange for a ball to be held in Arlington Hall on October 19, the proceeds to defray the expenses of a permanent home for the club.

I'm not saying anything against Mr. Fassett, I'm simply stating the plain fact as to what the people through this section believed. You know how the county vots fell off. The people here want to make their own choice

He is an admirable man and all that, but he is too old, and people here believe that the attempt will be made to force him upon the convention. If he is nominated it will be hard to get people to think otherwise."

Judge North's opinions are held by other leaders here. One of the delegates said:

"I don't see any reason for nominating Mr. Morton. We might better get a poor man. The country people don't like to hear the cry about money which is sure to be raised. I am hoping for the success of the Republican party and its because of his work for the Republican party and its house for the nomination of them. Mr. Morton seems to be preferred to Mr. Fassett becauss of the latter's defeat three years ago. If Mr. Depew should become a candidate he would find favor with some of the delegates. One or two, however, would prefer other candidates,

There is just one contingency which might throw the county to Morton. Genesee is enthustastic for H. F. Tarbox, of this place, for Mem ber of Congress. He and James W. Wadsworti are engaged in an active contest for the nomination. If Mr. Wadsworth can be nominated for Lieutenant-Governor, Genesee will vote for him gladly and get him out of the race for Congress. It might even be induced to agree to a Mortor -Wadsworth combination in return for the Livingston vote in the Congress Convention. If Mr Wadsworth does not come before the State con vention the Genesee delegates will probably vote

The latter county has a candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court, and the vote of Chautauqua is desired in the Judicial convention.

Mr. Wade's chances are believed here to be good. Friends report him to have positive assurance of the unwavering support of ex-Sentator Platt. A Seneca County politician who was in Batavia a few days ago was just as positive that W. L. Sweet had Mr. Platt's promise of the nomination. He appealed to the Genesee people for support and told them they had better put themselves on the winning side early, for he knew the slate had all been arranged. The Aldridge men are equally positive that the Rochester Mayor is Mr. Platt's elect.

Albert Haight, of Buffalo, has been talked of as the man most likely to get the nomination for Ludge of the Court of Appeals, but it is said in Mayor is Mr. Platt's elect.

Albert Haight, of Buffalo, has been talked of as the man most likely to get the nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals, but it is said in this section by some persons that the wounded feelings which Monroe will have if Aldridge is "turned down" by Mr. Platt will be assuaged by an attempt to give the nomination to William A. Sutherland, of Rochester. Mr. Sutherland is one of the Monroe delegates and is working for Mr. Aldridge. The Rochester lawyer has served Mr. Platt faithfully and would have strong claims on him which he might well urge if Mr. Aldridge were out of the way and he were free to go upon the ticket himself.

A friend of Mr. Wadsworth's who came from Genesee this morning, said that if there is any possibility of his being nominated for Lieutenant-Governor, a great many of his supporters will urge him-to-accept the place.

A NEW REPUBLICAN ASSOCIATION. Albany, Sept. 7.—The Republican Association of the State of New-York was incorporated to-day the State of New-York was incorporated to-day with the Secretary of State, with the principal office in New-York City. The objects are to secure unanimity of action among the Republicans of this State, to obtain a fair recognition in the city, State and Federal departments; to maintain and encourage an unswerving devotion to the Federal Government; to obtain a fair and equal protection of the law, an unhampered bellot and an honest count throughout the State and country, and to perform such other work as will best conserve the welfare of the Republican party. The directors are Aifred C. Cowan, William H. Smith, John A. Seaton, James R. Braxton and J. Newton Benedict, of New-York City; James W. Mars, Adam' Hudson. John Little and E. Barfield, of Brooklyn.

"I would not say that or harbor the thought for an instant. Nevertheless, I am surprised at the widely spread discontent with Mr. Platt that is now being vented on Mr. Morton"

A Boffalo Republican is quoted in a dispatch to "The New-York Press" as saying: "The Erie dela gation is for Roberts loyally, and it cannot be transferred to any one else. It is anti-Fassett and anti-Saxton and anti-Russell quite as much as it is anti-anybody else. There are numerous politicians in this State who think they are in Mr. Platt's confidence. Kings County was the banner Republican county in 1893; it has a right to present a candidate and to State Convention. In General Stewart L. Woodford, says "The Brooklyn Times," it will have a candidate of National reputation, one who is known and honored by every Republican in the State. His name should be presented by Kings County. "The Times" urges, and should be supported by a solid Kings County delegation, so long as there is a possibility of securing his nomination.

The best place to decide who is to be the Republican candidate for Governor will be the State Con-vention at Saratoga, declares "The Syracuse Standvention at Saratoga, uscuares. The Syracuse Standard." The party, it adds, was never in better condition to elect delegates thereto upon whom the mass of voters can depend for a conscientious performance of duty at that time. In many of the counties of this State popular sentiment regarding the head of the ticket has not yet thoroughly crystallized.

Congressman James W. Wadsworth certainly has reason to fell flattered at the prominence now given to him, says "The Lockport Journal." His name is daily mentioned in connection with the Republican nomination for various offices of honor and trust, including Governor, Lieutenant-Governor and a return to Congress. If the gubernatorial nomination were tendered him most people, says "The Journal," would think him very unwise not to accept it.

According to "The New-York Morning Advertiser" there is a decided Depew boom in the air, and if

The delegations from Otsego County to the Repub-lican Congress Convention, "The Utica Press" de-clares, will urge the nomination of De Forest Wilbur, who was the candidate of his county for State Senator at the famous long conventions held in Utica several years ago. Mr. Wilbur's father was in Congress at the time of his death.

"Th-Commercial Advertiser" has this to say about the canvass for the Gubernatorial nomination: "A Republican nomination will be made at Saratoga. Republican nomination will be made at Saratoga. Outside of the candidates named for the honor of leading the Republican party, it can be said that there are other men who are ready to go into the fight, now that it is a free-for-all race. So far as New-York and Kings counties are concerned, The Commercial Advertiser is informed by a gentleman who has the best sources of information that neither one will submit to nominations made in advance of the meeting of the representatives of the Republican party. This man says: This year's fight is not against Mr. Morton. Every Republican in this State would vote for Mr. Morton, and he could be elected. But Mr. Morton is now being used as a club to force the party to accept him. This would be a victory for Platt. Now, this is not the time for an exhibition of individual influence, but a time for an exhibition of individual influence but a time for an exposition of the power of the Republican party. If one man can go to work and decide for the Republican party in a year like this it is almost time to quit. It has been said that the feeling for Morton is irresistible. This may be true, but I believe that Mr. Morton will not have a majority vote on the informal ballet. All through this State there is a deciden feeling that the Republican convention, and not register a decree of any man or any combination.

This is regarded as the most important meeting in the history of the brotherhood, coming as it does after having passed through two strikes of its own inception-the Lehigh Valley and Ann Arbor-and fol lowing close on the Pullman strike. Delegates will be here from every State in the Union, from Mexico and Canada. Grand Master Sargent and Secretary and Canada. Grain Masser Sargent is not pleased at the way in which Eugene V. Debs, as Editor of "The Locamotive Firemen's Magazine," the organ of the order, worked the publication for his own private selfish ends. Mr. Sargent intimated that the order will "bounce" Debs summarily, "I will recommend," he said, "the election of a manager and ellitor of the magazine who will run it exclusively in the interests of the order and not for personal purposes. It has not been managed that way, and the interests of the order come first." This means the displacement of Debs.

Secretary Arnold says that the treasury has a surplus of $17,900, and nearly $1,000,000 was paid for death and disability claims. The Lenigh Valley and Ann Arbon strikes cost about $115,000. PROGRESS OF THE CONTEMPT TRIAL Chicago, Sept. 7.-When court opened to-day to hear the cases against Debs and other members of the American Railway Union, Mr. Erwin, coun-sel for the defence, created a mild sensation by objecting to the testimony of the first witness, F.

The Court ruled that men who had been indicted might be put on the stand, but could not be compelled to give testimony incriminating themselves. Several witnesses testified to the interruption of traffic and intimination. To all such testimony the defence entered an objection on the ground that the officers and directors of the American Raliway Union were not responsible for the acts of the mobs. Just before court adjourned for the day Mr. Erwin made an impassioned speech objecting to the introduction of testimony showing mob violence on the ground that it will tend to create a public sentiment against the defendants and that this public sentiment might influence the court to strain a point and punish them because of a public outery. objecting to the testimony of the first witness, F. outery.

CHOLERA STILL SPREADING.

MARINE HOSPITAL OFFICIALS ALARMED BY ITS INCREASE IN EUROPE.

NEED OF STRINGENT PRECAUTIONS TO KEEP THE DISEASE FROM ENTERING THIS COUN-TRY-STATISTICS FROM DR. IRWIN.

Washington, Sept. 7 .- Officials of the Marine Hos pital Service display undisguised anxiety as to the ontinued spread of cholera in Europe, and fear that the United States may not be able to escape disease unless the most strenuous precau tionary measures are taken at every point.

The latest reports in regard to Walther, the Bavarian, who died in Cumberland, Md., are regarded as not conclusive or satisfactory by any means. The ten-days' report of Surgeon Fairfax Irwin, of Scotland, August 22, which has just been printed. says that the period covered by the report has been especially in Austria-Hungary, Germany and Hot land. It may be said that cholera has shown a power of recrudecence in Russia, Galicia, North-east Germany and Holland which is greater than could have been expected, and in excess of that which obtained last year. It is extremely difficult to obtain reliable information from France or Bercurved at Bordeaux of a person who had come from Marseilles within the previous fortywhere true cholera is existing, especially as most antined against it. Up to the end of June cholera was practically confined to Russia and Austria-Hungary. In the latter five districts of Eastern Galicia and Bukowins. There were other infected centres. A few cases had occurred in Germany on the Vistula, and others in France, Belgium and Turkey. In France, in the Departments of Morbihan and Finisterre, in Belgium, in the provinces of Liége and Limbours, and in Turkey, in Constantinople and the neighboring districts, the disease exisis. Since July 1 there has been a great extension of the disease in Russia, including at least fifteen more Governments, most of them in Western and Northwestern Russia. There have been alarming reports about the epidemic in Cronstadt and St. Petersburg, and as cholera decreased in these cities its outbreak at Riga is heard of.

In Austria-Hungary the spread of the disease in the last ten days has been great in Eastern Galicia along the River Zbrucz and in Bukowina. In Germany cholera has spread along the Vistula. Centres of infection have been established near Dantizes of infection have been established near Dantizes and Johannisherg, and isolated cases reported at Berlin, Bremen and Cologne, it is a queution now as to whether the Rhine is infected. It is certain that cases have occurred on Rhine steamers—one of an engineer at Cologne, another that of a passenger on a boot coming from Mannheim to Rotterdam.

AN IMPORTANT CROSE EXPECTED FROM THE

Washington, Sept. 7 (Special) .- An important erder is daily expected from the War Department. Now that the new appropriation for the move-ment of troops is available, a programme has been mapped out to exchange a number of restments, to increase the strength of certain posts, and to abandon other stations. General Schofield has prepared detailed directions concerning the proposed changes and forwarded them with his recommendations to Secretary Lamont, who is now at Gray Gables with the President. Army officers are much interested in the orders. It is learned at the War Department David's Island will be affected by the new directions.

Officers of the Marine Corps are congratulating themselves upon the number and character of the recruits now being obtained. The latest muster rolls received at the headquarters of the corps show that the strength is now up to its authorized limit. The men who have recently been enlisted are of a particularly good class, as the number of applicants has been so large that officers in command of barracks and in charge of recruiting rendezvous have had much latitude in the matter of selection. Only the best men, therefore, have been taken. As a result of the strength of the corps being up to the legal limit, Colonel Heywood has given instructions to stop recruiting for the present. The total number of reported descritions in the corps in the last two months has been only fifteen, or less than 5 per cent of the whole strength.

The following special Army orders have been issued:
Captain William A. Kimball, retired, is detailed for service as professor at the Bishop Scott Academy, Portland, Ore.
The special order relating to Captain John B. Bellinger, assistant quartermaster, is revoked, and he will proceed from this city to West Point, N. Y., and report to the superintendent of the Millitary Academy for assignment to duty at that station to relieve Captain William H. Miller, assistant quartermaster. Captain Miller, upon being relieved, will report without delay to the commanding officer at Jefferson Barracks for assignment to duty as post quartermaster, and to take charge of the construction of buildings at that post, relieving Captain Charles H. Ingalls, assistant quartermaster.
The second-class battle-ship Maine will have her official tria trip in Long Island Sound some time next week. She is now at the Brooklyn Navy Yard.
The interest which attaches to the trials of the cruisers Raleigh and Cincinnati, the first ships built by the Government in many years, will not be gratified for some time. These vessels are practically ready for their trials, but it has been decided to allow them to cruise about in home waters to get "a shaking-down" before fixing the dates for the tests. The Raleigh will cruise in Hampton Roads and Chesapeake Bay, and the Cincinnati in Long Island Sound and along the adjacent coast.

The semi-circular walk leading from east and west to the main entrance, along their visitors stand in line on reception days, his been torn up, and the rough state blocks with which it was paved will be replaced by a smooth cement pavement. Stone carts and dirt wagons pass it and out of the gateways, gange of labours move here and there, and altogether the White House grounds are anything but attractive. During these repairs the mansion it closed to visitors. An indication of the time of the President's return is given in a notice posted on the nain doorway that the house will not be opened until October 15. fixtures replaced, walls and woodwork repainted perts have decided that electricity is to be the future power for moving heavy guns and turrets The experiments were highly satisfactory in ril respects, and in the construction of all new vesse of war electricity is to play an important part in battery work.

The special ides decided upon is to abanden steam as a motor in moving the turrets of shirs

The essentially novel feature of the device is that the turn of a switch serves to move the turred in a circular direction, and at the same time to train the gun up or down or to the right or left. The rapidity of the action is considerably greater than when steam is used. Once the switch is turned the movement of a lever turns a turret, however large and heavy, and directs the muzzle of the gun at any desired angle of train. The present plan is to install the new system on the Iowa and Brooklyn. It is not intended to remove the steam motors on the vessels now in commission, or which have advanced in construction to such a stage as to make the change an expensive one. The Navy will not be compelled to employ any patentel machinery, as Captain Sampson's idea is only the application of simple devices which are not controlled by any person or company.

YELLOW FEVER SUSPECTED.

A BRITISH STEAMER AT BALTIMORE THOUGHT TO HAVE THE DISEASE ON BOARD.

Baltimore, Sept. 7 (Special) - The yellow flag is flying from the British steamer Samuel Tyzack tonight. She was ordered back to Quarantine from this city. The steamer passed the Federal Quarantine Station at Cape Charles, and also received a clean bill of health at the City Quarantine. She was loading coal at Locust Point piers for Cten-fuegos, Cuba. George Herman, a fireman, was taken hi with a high fever several days ago. He was removed to the Maryland University Hispital n this city, where he died. Last evening Eiger Poole, the chief engineer; Cornellus Watson, as-sistant, and John Wilson, a fireman, were taken ill on board the vessel, their symptoms being the same as those of Herman. Dr. James F. McShans, City Health Commissioner, went on board the steamer late last night and made a careful extended and the steamer late last night and made a careful extended and the last night and made a careful extended and the last night and forbade Captain. Weffner, the master, to leave the steamer. At the members of the crew on board were detained, but it has been learned that several sallors who were paid off and discharged have been boarding at the sallors' lodging-houses in the crowded tenement-house district. The Health Commissioner says that there is no danger of contagion, as the discharged sallors have been under strict surveillance and had not come in contact with the sick men. S. Hamilton, of Hamilton & Co., to whom the vessel was consigned, said that he understood that the disease was yellow fever. The hospital doctors will not talk. same as those of Herman. Dr. James F. MEXICO WILL PROFIT BY THE NEW TARIFF Kansas City, Sept. 7.—Ex-Governor T. T. Crit-tenden, Consul-General of the United States to Mexico, accompanied by Mrs. Crittenden, arrived in Kansas City ther morning. Speaking of Mexico, Mr. Crittenden said. The Mexican officials are much interested in Crittenden said.

"The Mexican officials are much interested in our new Tariff law. It will tend to increase the trade between the two Republics, but it is not as liberal as I should not be have seen. Lead ore ought to have been free. The reduction of the tariff on cattle will be beneficial. I saw it stated just before I left that the reduction of the tariff will bring 100,00 head of Mexican cattle into the American markets within a year. I do not know that this is true. The Mexican Government would reduce the high tariff it maintains if it could. Its financial condition is unfortunate, and the depreciation in silver heaben very hard on Mexico. Still, it is paying the interest on its ocht, and the principal as it matures, which is more than any other Spanish-American State can do. Our American people are beginning to understand Mexico, and we have a good number of Americans there encaged in business and running plantations. Dr. Cockrell, son of the Schator, is now in the United States buying machinery for his coffee and sugar haciendas. Others who are there are making money. Coffee-growing is an inviting field."

RUMORS ABOUT THE WHISKEY TRUST. Peoria, Ill., Sept. 7.-Investigation fails to reveal anything to substantiate a rumor circulated on 'Change in Chicago this morning that a re-ceiver is to be appointed for the Whiskey Trust. Vice-President Beggs said he knew nothing of the receivership rumor, and was disposed to look upon the same as a hoak.
